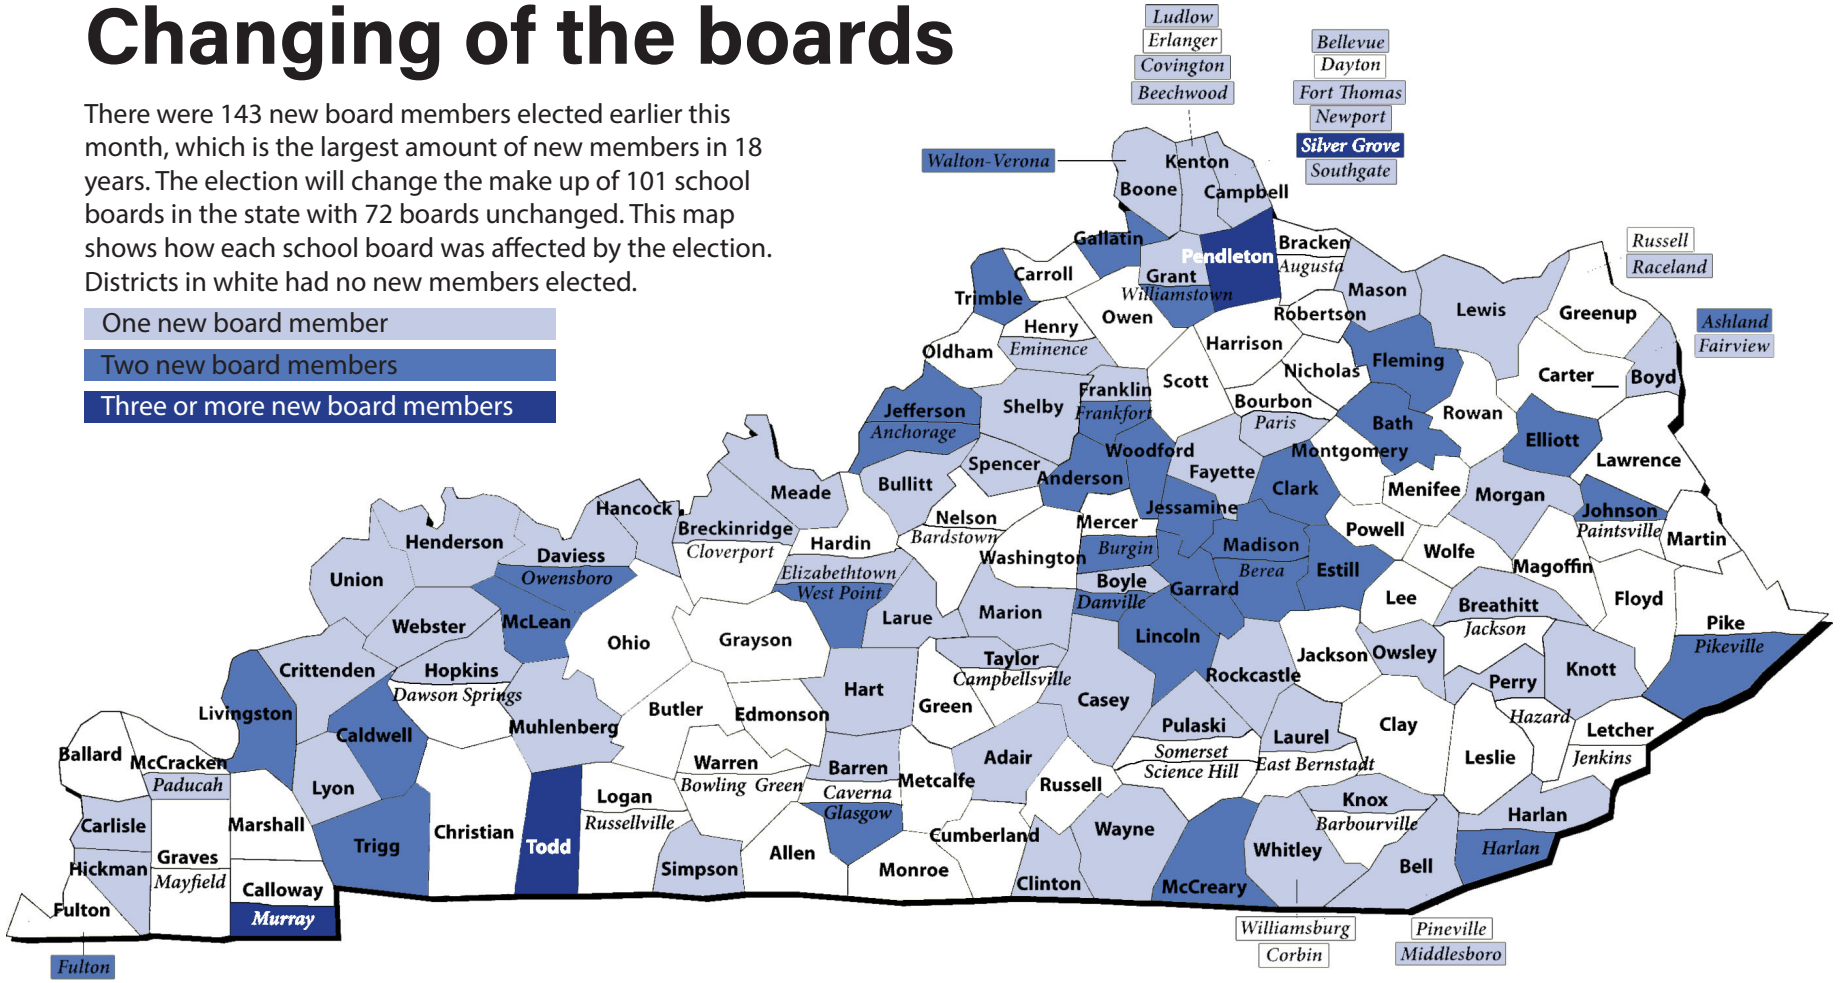
Changing of the boards

There were 143 new board members elected earlier this month, which is the largest amount of new members in 18 years. The election will change the make up of 101 school boards in the state with 72 boards unchanged. This map shows how each school board was affected by the election. Districts in white had no new members elected.

One new board member

Two new board members


Three or more new board members